

INTERMEDIATE WEB DEVELOPER

United Van Lines (Canada) Ltd. is the number one van line in Canada. Mayflower is the most recognized brand in North America. Both van lines are owned by their Member companies and are 100% Canadian owned and operated. We are currently seeking:

Summary of Position:

An Intermediate Web Developer is required for our I.T. department for developing, maintaining and supporting the van lines' Intranet and Extranet web sites as well as other in-house developed applications using various web-based technologies.

Job Responsibilities

- Requirement gathering & design of new applications
- Participation in the creation of system-level design diagrams and component level design diagrams
- Preparation of project plans and producing programming specifications
- Coding, testing and debugging new software
- Maintaining existing systems

Minimum qualifications & skills:

- University Degree in Computer Science/Information Technology
- 5 years of application development experience (3 yrs direct internet development)
- ASP & ASP.NET development (C#, .NET 4.0, Visual Studio 2010)
- Involvement in the full software development life cycle
- Proven experience as a web developer/designer using hand-coded HTML/DHTML, JavaScript, CSS, VB Script
- Strong knowledge of database design, architecture and relational databases
- Experience working with AS400 & iSeries an asset
- Experience managing multiple projects at one time with an ability to meet deadlines
- Strong analytic skills and an interest in developing an understanding of the underlying business requirements of the software
- Strong verbal and written communication skills
- Detail oriented, with strong interpersonal, organizational and problem solving skills